SPECIFIC— Identity A/Identity B Conversation in Paris

1. Recently Identity A visited Paris to discuss with Identity B the desirability of Identity B participating as advisor in a filming of the 20th of July story. During the visit Identity A reportedly told Identity B the following:

a. Identity A's last contact with the East was more than a year ago when he met Identity C, who had assured him that VOPO guns would never be fired at West Germans.

b. That much circulated story of Identity A maintaining "Karlhorst contacts" dates back to a meeting in late 1948 or early 1949 that did take place in Karlhorst; he, i.e., Identity A, Identity D and Identity E went to meet with Identity F with the knowledge and approval of Identity G. A financial settlement for the withdrawal of Soviet Forces was discussed with the figures ten and twelve billion (DM or $?) being an element of the negotiation.

2. Identity B indicated that he would not be able, because of his preoccupation with current responsibilities, to render any assistance in the 20th of July film.

3. Separately from the above approach, Identity H was asked to visit Berlin to assist in the same film. Identity I and Identity J were especially active in arranging support and historical and technical advice on the history of the German resistance to the Hitler regime.

4. UTILITY is most interested in learning if, indeed, the meeting with the alleged approval of Identity G took place and can be confirmed from American records.
